

Central Adelaide and Hills Psychosocial NDIS Communities of Practice (CoP) 4/12/18

The Central Adelaide and Hills Partners in Recovery (CAH PIR) program have much pleasure in inviting you to the next Central Adelaide and Hills Psychosocial NDIS Communities of Practice (CoP) to be held on Tuesday the 4/12/18 from 9:30am – 12:30pm at the Walkerville Civic and Community Centre.

The CoP provides a forum for sharing knowledge, expertise and information between stakeholders who have an interest in psychosocial disability and the NDIS– this includes service providers/organisations who engage with people who anticipate transitioning to the NDIS, as well as consumers, their carers and families.

The focus of this CoP will be on reviews, appeals and advocacy. Presentations are:

- The Pathways to Reviews, which one is right for you?
Kathryn Franz, NDIS SA Transformation Lead, Life Without Barriers
- The realities of reviews and appeals – lessons learnt
Adrian Crowe, Senior Advocate Appeals and Natalie Berg, Advocate, Advocacy for Disability Access and Inclusion.
- Advocacy – what the MHCSA is up to
Shandy Arlidge, Senior Policy Officer, Mental Health Coalition of SA (MHCSA)
- Update on Adelaide PHN Initiatives
Simon McMahon, Capacity Building & Development Coordinator, Adelaide PHN

If you would like to attend please register via this Mental Health Professionals Network (MHPN) link <https://www.mhpn.org.au/find-network> .
