ASHM would like to invite HIV s100 Prescribers and medical practitioners in South Australia to attend this dinner training.

This dinner workshop will bring attendees an overview of the content showcased at the 2018 International AIDS Conference held in Amsterdam, as well as a number of complex HIV cases to discuss.

The first session is a conference report back session. Professor Mark Boyd will provide an update on the latest studies, important developments and best research methods in the ongoing battle against HIV, AIDS and related infectious diseases from the IAS Conference 2018.

The second session will be an interactive panel discussion, focussing on the management of complex HIV cases. Panellists include Professor Mark Boyd, Dr Russell Waddell (Consultant Sexual Health Physician and Clinical Director STD Services, Royal Adelaide Hospital) and Dr Andrew Beckwith (Senior Consultant Psychiatrist, Director of Training, HIV/Hep C Liaison Psychiatrist, CALHN Mental Health). The session will be hosted by Dr Samuel Elliott (Principal General Practitioner, Riverside Family Medical Practice).
