Invitation
For General Practitioners

Prostate Cancer Diagnoses Management & Treatment
Management of Lower Urinary Tract Symptoms

Please join our presenters for an informative and interactive education sessional on the diagnoses, management and treatment options for prostate cancer as well as the management of lower urinary tract symptoms.

Presentations

Dr Matt Hong – Urological Surgeon
Topic – Prostatic Specific Antigen. PSA monitoring and prostate cancer diagnosis

Dr Joshua Sappiatzer – Radiation Oncologist
Topic – Investigating Radiation Therapy as a treatment option for prostate cancer

Dr Sophie Plagakis – Urological Surgeon
Topic – Management of Lower Urinary Tract symptoms

Learning Outcomes

• Determine the role of PSA testing and its impact on the management of localised prostate cancer
• Assess when prostate cancer patients are appropriate for surgical intervention or radiation therapy as a treatment option
• Implement a long term management plan for urological patients under going surgical treatment for prostate cancer
• Generate a systems based approach to ensure the safety of patients transitioning into secondary treatment
• Appropriately assess and manage patients with lower urinary tract symptoms

Details

When: Wednesday 10th March 2021

Where: Lenzerheide Restaurant
146 Belair Rd
Hawthorn

Program
6:00pm Registration
6:15pm Presentation
7:15pm Dinner
7:30pm Presentations
8:30pm Q&A

RSVP: by 3rd March 2021
Marcel Martinelli
M: 0438 641 843
E: marcel.martinelli@mundipharma.com.au

Please advise of any dietary requirements

4 CDP points have been applied for